San Jose Staff Support their Community

Sacramento, CA – August 10, 2007 – GALLINA, LLP – On August 9th, 2007 five members of GALLINA’s San Jose staff take time out of their busy work and personal schedules to support fundraising efforts for local TV station KTEH. KTEH Public Television 54 (Comcast 10) was founded in 1964 and broadcasts from San Jose in Silicon Valley. As one of more than 300 member stations of the Public Broadcasting Service (PBS), KTEH serves its viewers with the best programming available from PBS, APT and other national distributors. The station's outreach campaigns combine educational programs, productions, and activities to address community concerns. KTEH partners with community groups with a similar mission to KTEH's to create outreach campaigns, which address school readiness for young children, parenting issues, environmental awareness, drug and alcohol abuse, reading, and much more.

The GALLINA staff members answered phones and took donations and CD orders during the live broadcast to support the station’s very important fundraising efforts. 70% of the station’s operating budget comes from public donations from viewers at fundraising telethons such as this. The staff members displayed the GALLINA LLP logo and the station spokesperson told viewers how GALLINA LLP is a full-service certified public accounting firm specializing in construction, real estate, government, and a broad range of other businesses and individuals. She explained how the firm has been building businesses since 1972 and has grown to a team of 18 partners and over one hundred staff members who have a wide range of experience in accounting, tax planning, claims consulting, finance, and business management. GALLINA LLP serves its clients through offices in Sacramento, Roseville, Walnut Creek, San Jose, Novato, San Bruno, Chico, Reno and Seattle.

GALLINA Manager Ying McKee organized the event within the firm and staff members: Michael Bush, Chris Hamlin, Mark Daines, and Daniel Wozniak participated. The group stated, “It was very fulfilling. It gave us a chance to spend time together, outside of work, to laugh and have fun, while also supporting a good cause and supporting what is important to our fellow co-workers.” Ying is known within the firm to be an active philanthropist who often takes it upon herself to organize events supporting the community and other good causes. She and other members of the San Jose office have also coordinated events such as Habitat for Humanity and the Cancer Walk. Regional Managing Partner, Steve Schultz stated, “GALLINA is very proud of the character and ethics our staff demonstrates. Ying exemplifies the type of people we have here at GALLINA. Not only do they give quality service above and beyond what is expected to our clients, they also take it upon themselves to do good things in support of our community.” ###
